

A Letter From

The Easter Bunny

Hippity hop, it's the best time of year
Easter day is finally here

Cute Easter baskets, oh I've made a few
And I've set one aside especially for you!

I've been watching and noticed you've been very kind
So I wanted to leave even more treats behind

I've brought lots of eggs and they're hollow, not dyed
Peek and you'll find special goodies inside

The eggs are all scattered, I've hidden them well
And I'm giving no hints because bunnies don't tell

But you're super smart so you'll know where to look
Just remember to carefully check every nook

Hope these fill your day with Easter cheer
And I'll be back with more goodies again next year!

Love, The Easter Bunny
